

BRISTOL

General: The cosmopolitan air of Bristol, with a wealth of traces of the city's post-industrial heritage, is reflected in the brand new surface inspired by the typical brick facades found there. The allure, feel and urban spirit of bricks springs back to life in this porcelain stoneware, evident in which is the strongly contemporary nature of the vibrant neighbourhoods that make up this English city.

Applications: Commercial & residential floors and walls, including wall features especially interesting for external and slip resistant floors and pathways.
